THE CHAMPION WEDS

Last week Mr. Gene Tunney, erstwhile feather champion of the world, was married in Rome. Amidst all the pomp of the Italian ceremony and the festive glory of a sea of flowers, Mr. Tunney signed up for a bout that will throw all his previous engagements into the shade.

Far beside a matrimonial engagement, a ring engagement is mere child's play.

Mr. Tunney may know all about fencing and ducking and protecting his skin from the blows of a boxing opponent. But what does he know about the mental fencing and ducking that is essential when the good wife finds a hair of the wrong color on his shoulder?

He may know what to do when the challenger comes snuffling at him from his corner. But does he know what to do or say when the little well-groomed darling comes down to breakfast with a crown that only two or three hundred dollars worth of new clothes can match away?

It requires intelligence, strength and skill to be a champion.

It requires all these plus the patience of Job in a general blessing from God to be a good husband.

RADIO CARRIES BISHOP'S MESSAGE TO MACLEOD LISTENERS — ANGLICAN CHURCH PEOPLE ENJOY A URBAN TREAT—RECEPTION PERFECT

The congregation of Christ church (Anglican), Macleod, enjoyed a great treat Sunday night when they listened in and took part in the great combined mass meeting service held in the Arena at Calgary.

One of the latest types of radio with loud speaker was installed in the church and during the high noon which interfered a little at times, the whole service was clear and distinct, the congregation was able to join in the hymns and prayers. The opening devotions were conducted by the Very Rev. R. H. McLeod, M. A., B. D., dean of Calgary, and the address by the Honorable Mr. Justice Walsh, chancellor of the diocese of Calgary, gave a fresh and interesting outline of the objects of the missionary appeal to raise funds to put the diocese on a sound financial basis.

The address of the Rev. J. L.

Ralph Sherman, M. A., D. D., first Bishop of Calgary, was elected to 20th year of ministry. He based his appeal on the loyalty and patriotism of the English ship a people as the great fundamental truth of the church, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. In eloquent and stirring words he called the members to more earnest and devoted service in the interests of the church, stating clearly that the success of Canada and the church in the future was not the work of governments or the clergy but of the individuals, the people.

EVERY CITIZEN

OF THIS TOWN AND EVERY

RESIDENT OF THE DISTRICT

is interested in the

GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

OF THIS COMMUNITY

Remember Then That:

The business of a town is its very life-blood.

The stores and business houses are not alone for the merchants.

Prosperous merchants will make the community prosper.

The more buyers there are in a town, the greater "turn over" the merchants will have, and thus the more they will be able to reduce prices and increase the quality of the goods they sell.

Thus By Trading at Home with the home town merchants the people thus become the builders of their own community.

No True Citizen

will stunt the natural growth and expansion of his home town by fostering the mail order business of far away communities.

Buy At Home

not to help the merchants, but to help the home community and yourself.

WEDDING BELLS

LINGINGS-McCREA

On Wednesday evening of last week at the home of the bride's parents, Alberta May, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCre of Macleod, was united in marriage to William Lingings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lingings of Armstrong.

The bride, who was being escorted by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sengall, was a lovely girl of 22, and the groom was accompanied by Harold McCre, brother of the bride. While the reception was being given by the bride's mother, Mrs. Robert McCre, the bride and groom were in a lovely gown of mauve georgette trimmed with silver lace, with shoes and stockings to match, and carried a shower bouquet of sunburst roses and mauve hair ferns. The bride's mother wore a charming dress of pale green on georgette trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride's mother wore a handsome dress of black georgette, beautifully trimmed.

After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served to the guests, who numbered about 20, and included only family relations and a few members of the Princess club, of which the bride has been an active member.

The gift from the groom to the bride was a handsome box for the bedroom and a handsome box for the bathroom. The bride's mother was a white gold and pearl. The young couple were the recipients of a very large number of beautiful presents, as they were very popular. The bride and groom were for a number of years in the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. He is now on the bank staff at Calgary, where they will make their home after a short honeymoon at Seattle and other west coast cities. The bride's main-away costume was black and white, with a white dress, navy suit, with hat to match, and fox fur.
